JAMES H. JONES.

FEBRUARY 13, 1895.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House and ordered to be printed.

Mr. MOSES, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 8243.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 8243) granting increase of pension to James H. Jones, sr., respectfully submit the following report thereon:

The claimant served from May 9, 1836, to September 2, 1836, as a private in Captain Urquhart's company of Georgia Volunteers in the Florida Indian war, and he is now receiving, under certificate 1470, the pension of $8 per month allowed by the Indian War act of July 27, 1892.

Mr. Jones is now about 82 years of age, in a helpless condition physically, and wholly dependent upon his small pension for a support.

The passage of the bill is respectfully recommended, with an amendment striking out the word "senior" as it occurs after the claimant's name.
